Class D Street - Up to 1.6 Normally Aspirated

Matthew Tyson (above left) returned to the TSS for the first time this year and what a great first sprint he had. Matthew finished 1st in Class D Street with an excellent time of 1.50.91. Following very closely behind with a 1.50.96 was the AE86 Levin driven by Alex Fung (above right).

Class D Pro - Up to 1.6 Normally Aspirated

A great turnout for D Pro with 7 drivers competing in a variation of cars. Martin Lush (above left) stole the show once again in his AE86 Levin with a time of 1.46.29. Second place was secured by Paul Thomas (above right) with a time of 1.54.70 that was set on his final run.

Class C Street - Over 1.6 Normally Aspirated

Class C Street consisted of just the one driver this round, Richard McKay (above) in his Celica GT. Richard pushed on throughout the day and managed to break the 1.50 barrier on his final lap, finishing with a 1.49.51.

Class C Pro - Over 1.6 Normally Aspirated

It was looking promising for Tom Jewell (above right) after run number 4 when he crossed the line half a second quicker than Peter, but Peter Mason (above left) in his MR2 continued to get quicker throughout the day and stole first place with a 1.46.85. Tom finished second in the group with a 1.47.53.

Class B Pro - Up to 1.6 Forced Induction

Phil Cutler (above) didn't have any direct competition in Class B Pro but that didn't stop him from putting in some brilliant times. 1.44.77 was Phil's final and best time of the day.

Class A3 Street - Over 1.6 Forced Induction
